MARCH 21, 2010 | FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

“Teacher, this woman was caught in the very act of committing adultery. Now in the law, Moses commanded us to stone such women. So what do you say?” They said this to test him, so that they could have some charge to bring against him. Jesus bent down and began to write on the ground with his finger. But when they continued asking him, he straightened up and said to them, “Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her.”

FROM OUR CHAPLAIN

Dear JFK Community, Travelers and Visitors to Our Chapel,

As we are approaching the Passion (Palm) Sunday, we are beginning two most exciting weeks in the liturgical year. Their significance and importance is beyond what our minds can comprehend. That is why they truly belong to the core of the mystery of our faith. At this time Christians everywhere make sure that they participate as much they can, as they meditate upon the mystery of redemption. Some of us will take part in beautiful liturgies in beautifully decorated churches, filled up with incense, and inspirational music. Some others will find themselves traveling across the continent or even across the world. Still others will spend hours serving the needs of those who are traveling, or simply providing security and protection to all of us. That is why Our Lady of the Skies Chapel would like to offer as much as we only can to meet the needs of those of you, who for some reason, will not be able to join your parish or other communities.

The upcoming Holy Week, we will be offering you various liturgical celebration on a scale not seen in years at JFK: not only will we continue our daily Masses at 12:15 PM, which have found some regular participants, but we will also increase the number of Masses and services, particularly on Palm and Easter Sunday. I hope that this will help you to celebrate the great events of our faith here at Our Lady of the Skies, which is your connection between heaven and earth, at a place where people take it to the skies or arrive back on earth.

As usually, I am open to many individual spiritual needs, such as blessings, confessions, just a talk before you take off. See me at our office, located by our Chapel or call me (718) 656-5348 or email at jfkchapel@gmail.com to make an appointment.

God bless you, wherever you are and wherever you go,

*Fr. Chris Piasta, OFM
Chaplain*
